

You don't need a title to be a leader.

The strength of the team is each individual member. The strength of each individual member is the team

Kids Rock 1 Team

Whole Camp Responsibilities

- Morning/Afternoon Sport
- Snack Inventory and general supplies
- More elective class assignments
- Print out Registration List
- Camp Leader Mentoring

Kids Rock 1 Responsibilities:

- Daily devotions
- Meeting with and mentoring camp leaders
- Planning for "Group Game" time
- managing and troubleshooting behavior
- communicating w/ parents about KRI issues
- cleaning camp room and hallways

Kids Rock 2 Team

Whole Camp Responsibilities

- Activity of the day
- Creative arts option
- Arts and Crafts inventory and supplies
- Netflix Movies
- Camp Leader Mentoring

Kids Rock 2 Responsibilities:

- Daily devotions
- Meeting with and mentoring camp leaders
- Planning for "Group Game" time
- managing and troubleshooting behavior
- communicating w/ parents about KR2 issues
- cleaning camp room and bathrooms

Kids Rock 3 Team

Whole Camp Responsibilities

- Morning/Afternoon Theme
- Theme Activity Supplies
- Print out elective class choices
- Create class lists

Kids Rock 3 Responsibilities:

- Daily devotions
- Planning for "Group Game" time
- managing and troubleshooting behavior
- communicating w/ parents about KR3 issues
- Planning and running the "leaders in training" program
- Cleaning camp room and lunch room

Ecclesiastes 4:9-10

Coming together is a beginning.
Keeping together is a process.
Working together is success.

Team Leader Responsibilities

- facilitate meetings, discussion, and collaboration
- Communication with parents about behavior
- Organize daily and weekly activity schedules
- Provide general leadership and positivity
 - Check-in/Check-out
 - Adjusting daily schedule as needed
 - Lead lunch meetings as needed
- Emergency situation preparedness (fire drills, etc.)
 - Trouble-shoot behavior problems
 - Keep teams organized
- Communication with schools/church

1: Corinthians 12: 20-25

None of us is as smart as all of us